Subject: Monthly Report – February 2010

---

PERSONNEL:

Deputy Scott Klier CCN 14806 was transferred from the City of North Lauderdale to the Town of Lauderdale by the Sea filling a vacancy which was created as the result of a retirement.

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH:

Detective Kim Pullease, CCN 9974

In December 2009 the Town of Lauderdale-by-the-Sea suffered a number of conveyance burglaries. Detective Pullease actively conducted area canvasses, checked various locations for possible video evidence, and as a result of such efforts physical evidence was obtained. Detective Pullease discovered video surveillance that displayed a male and female suspect enter numerous vehicles and remove property. While reviewing the videotape a security guard advised the detective that the two subjects looked like a young couple that was staying with family in the condominium. Detective Pullease then followed up the investigative lead and learned that the suspects had already left the area without any additional addresses, but was advised that they were believed to be in the "Daytona area". The detective searched numerous databases and checked local pawnshops in attempt to locate the stolen property. After being met with negative results she reached out to the Volusia County Sheriff's Office in an attempt to have the agency check their databases in efforts to locate additional information on the suspects and attempt to locate the stolen items. While inquiring about the suspects the investigator that was speaking with the detective happened to be investigating a crime involving our suspect(s). Through their joint efforts the suspect was identified (W/F Danielle Cecchini 02/27/86), she was located, interviewed and confessed to the burglaries in Lauderdale by the Sea. Detective Pullease also obtained enough information to obtain an arrest warrant for the male suspect (W/M Kevin Ouellette, 10/2/85). The suspects have been located and apprehended in Daytona and are awaiting extradition back to Broward County.

Detective Pullease constantly looks “beyond borders” to identify and apprehend criminal offenders. Due to her hard work, dedication and tenacity two felony offenders are in custody and off the street.
